

Senate of Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, PA

Congratulations

In the Senate, April 30, 2013

Whereas, The Senate of Pennsylvania takes great pride in recognizing those businesses which, through adherence to the highest standards of service, contribute in a meaningful way toward a better and more productive society; and

Whereas, All Ways Moving and Storage is celebrating the momentous occasion of its one hundredth anniversary; and

Whereas, All Ways Moving and Storage was founded by Ralph H. Burt and Brady McKean in 1913. Jim Moore currently serves as the third-generation owner and operator of the company, which is comprised of twenty-five thousand-square-feet of warehouse space, more than thirty employees and twenty-eight trucks. In addition, the business has been an international agent for Wheaton World Wide Moving since 1973. To its great credit, All Ways Moving and Storage has won Wheaton's Quality of Service Award for each of the twenty years it has been bestowed, and it has also earned an Angie's List Super Service Award for the past five years. All Ways Moving and Storage has developed a strong reputation for the highest quality of service since its inception. By steady adherence to the principles of fairness, reliability and integrity, it has become a leader in the community and a model that is worthy of emulation.

Now therefore, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates All Ways Moving and Storage upon the joyous celebration of its one hundredth anniversary; offers best wishes for a future replete with ever-increasing success and service to the community;

And directs that a copy of this document, sponsored by Senator Timothy J. Solobay, be transmitted to All Ways Moving and Storage, 338 West Maiden Street, Washington, Pennsylvania.

Senator Timothy J. Solobay
